The servant opens with Aunt Polly crossing the fence in search of her nephew, Tom Sawyer. She finds him in the closet, discovers that his hands are covered with jam, and prepares to give him a whipping. Tom cries out theatrically, "Look behind you!" and when Aunt Polly turns, Tom escapes over the fence. After Tom is gone, Aunt Polly reflects ruefully on Tom's mischief and how she lets him get away with his tricks.

Tom comes home at supper time. During supper, Aunt Polly asks Tom about his absence and what happened. Tom replies in still more dramatic fashion, but Aunt Polly is satisfied, and Tom has earned the right to go to bed.

Tom goes out of the house to play the streets of St. Petersburg. Tom and the new arrival exchange the addresses all the way home.

When he returns home in the evening, Tom finds Aunt Polly waiting for him. She returns his dirty clothes and resolves to make him work the next day, a Saturday, as punishment.

On Saturday morning, Aunt Polly sends Tom out to whitewash the fence. Tom passes by, and Tom tries to get him to do some of the whitewashing in return for a "white alley," a kind of excuse. Tom almost agrees, but Aunt Polly appears and chases him off, leaving Tom alone with his labor.
